

Stores with Camping Equipment

Mountain Sports

Great local resource for all things outdoors. They have very knowable staff that can help you fit a back pack, pick out a sleeping bag or find the right hiking shoes. They will also price match any price on the internet.

Campmor

Great online resource, great prices. I have bought a lot of equipment from Campmor and have always been happy with their service.

REI

They have a retail store in North Dallas, great service, knowledgeable sales people. I have bought hiking boots from them and returned them after a backpacker because they hurt my feet. They took them back with no questions. On the expensive side, watch for sales. Their REI branded equipment is top notch as well.

Dicks Sporting Good

Good selection, not always a knowledgeable sales person. You should know what you want when you go. Prices are OK, to me Dicks Sporting Goods is more of a convenience shop if I know what I want and do not want to wait or drive a long distance.

Academy

Good prices on equipment, not always name brand. I have one of their store brand sleeping pads and am disappointed on the quality. I just do not want to spend $200 on a comparable sleeping pad.
